CELEBRATE NATIONAL LIBRARY CARD SIGN-UP MONTH!

Did you know that on average a library user can save about $900 a year? That's right! Save money by taking advantage of everything that the Library has to offer. Listen to music albums, learn a new language, read newspapers from around the world, access ratings and reviews from Consumer Reports, get online homework help, and so much more!

Look for a postcard from the Library in the mail, and then for the first two weeks in September use it as your trial library card to explore the Library's digital collection and online resources. Check out bestselling e-books and e-audiobooks; stream movies, music, and TV shows on your mobile devices or computers; and learn something new using one of our premium online resources... all for free with your library card!

Want even more opportunities to save? September is Library Card Sign-Up Month, the perfect time to come to the Library and sign up the whole family for library cards!
